Curriculum Vitae

BRUCE A. JACOBS, Ph.D.

Biographical sketch

A tenured Full Professor of Criminology and former Director of two nationally accredited Criminology Doctoral programs, Dr. Jacobs' street-based research on armed robbery, carjacking, and retaliatory violence (drawing from respondents who either were gang members or who operated in areas known for high gang activity) has been funded by the National Science Foundation (through the National Consortium on Violence Research) and the Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation. Dr. Jacobs served a multi-year term as Chair of the University of Texas at Dallas' Safety and Security Council, which was charged by the President of the University with developing, implementing, and evaluating a comprehensive safety and security plan for a campus of approximately 21,000 students and 20 million square feet of property. Dr. Jacobs has testified or been retained as an expert and/or consulting witness by both plaintiff and defense counsel in matters concerning crime foreseeability, offender deterrability, and/or security adequacy in hundreds of cases (including the September 11 litigation) covering more than 30 states (including Alaska and Hawaii) and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, at both the State and Federal level. Dr. Jacobs has performed security assessments and/or analyses of situational crime prevention measures at more than 500 properties nationwide, ranging from apartment complexes and gas stations to malls, motels, convenience stores, and transit stations. Dr. Jacobs has engaged in professional outreach with numerous businesses, organizational representatives, and/or private individuals on issues of crime analysis, crime prevention, and/or deterrence. Such entities include a supermarket conglomerate reporting over $2 billion in annual revenues, a hotel chain reporting assets of over $1 billion, and two private sector property management and development companies that oversee more than 40,000 apartment units in at least 20 states, and a Fortune 1000 fast food restaurant corporation. Dr. Jacobs received his Ph.D. in Sociology, with a specialization in Criminology, from the University of Southern California (USC) and his Bachelor's degree from Duke University (Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa).
